

OUR SATURDAY NIGHT SUPPER SERIES

A DIET FOR MENTAL DYSPEPSIA, AND A CURE FOR HYPOCHONDRIA, HY-POCHRY, OR ANY COMPLAINT OF A BILIOUS ORDER.

BY OUR SERIES EDITOR.

ALMANAC AND DIARY.

BRIEF METEOROLOGICAL OBSERVATIONS FOR THE WEEK.

March.

Monday, 12.—North Carolina Legislators meet in Raleigh in the primitive style, smoking pipes and whittling sticks, and have an excited discussion with knives.
Tuesday, 13.—In the case of Weaver vs. Given, the Court has decided that the votes cast for both parties were more or less illegal, but the exact number of such votes has not yet been counted.
Wednesday, 14.—Thaddeus Stevens exposes, as a Coppelhead fabrication, the reported speech of President Johnson on the 22d of last February. It was the opinion of many others that the fabric was largely of the Copper element.
Thursday, 15.—City Council meet. Colonel James Fane offered a resolution authorizing the Mayor to 'prepare new heads for the departments of the city.' In the opinion of all, these heads are much wanted.
Friday, 16.—William D. Kelley delivers his address at Concert Hall, to the people and the Black Swan, on the 'Dangers of the Hour.' It begins after 10 o'clock, and the streets imperceptibly lighted.
Saturday, 17.—Series Column Day and St. Patrick's Day. The Editor, like St. Patrick, banishes the reptiles of Gloom and Care from his dominions to-day.

GRAND ENTERTAINMENT.

FOR A SHORT TIME ONLY.

THE GREAT SHOW KNOWN AS THE IRISH REPUBLIC

Is now an Exhibition, including a large and choice collection of Lions, Elephants, Asses, and other beasts, together with feats of Vaulting, Juggling, etc. Managers and Proprietors, Roberts, Stephens & Mitchell.
Clown . . . . . Mr. O'Myhoney.
This exhibition has been running in New York city to crowded houses, and will shortly appear in the principal cities in the United States previous to an already advertised engagement in Canada.
The proprietors would inform the public that this show has no equal in the size of its Elephant, in the daring of its bare-backed and bare faced performers, nor in its feats of Juggling.
The celebrated Acrobats and Tumblers, THE FENIAN BROTHERS, have been engaged for this exhibition.
The Show will open by performances in the Ring, in which the Clown will, without a bridle (either to his horse or tongue), jump through the British Crown at a single bound, and turn a great number of back somersaults.

Clown . . . . . Mr. O'Myhoney.
After which will appear TWO STRONG MEN, carrying the weight of the Irish Republic.
Strong Men . . . . . Train and Stephens.
The Clown will then speak a Piece.
Clown . . . . . Mr. O'Myhoney.

After which there will be an exhibition of A LEARNED ELEPHANT.
Learned Elephant . . . . . Mr. Sweeney.
Who will perform many feats, such as packing his Trunk for a trip to Canada and then unpacking it, hitting a pike and laying it down again, and other interesting tricks.
The Clown will now speak a Piece.
Clown . . . . . Mr. O'Myhoney.
After which a Musical Composition will be executed, entitled

'HOW ARE YOU, HARP OF ERIN?'
By the Fenian Brothers.
Fenian Brothers . . . . . Roberts and Train.
The Clown will now speak a Piece.
Clown . . . . . Mr. O'Myhoney.

The Exhibition of Trained Donkeys, and other animals, will now follow.
Trained Donkeys . . . . . By the whole Company.
After which will be played A FARCE prepared expressly for this Company, entitled BEGGAR MY NEIGHBOR.
By the whole Company.
Begger . . . . . Mr. Stephens.

Principal Characters.—Countrymen, Subscribers to the Fenian Bonds, and others.
As the curtain falls the Clown will speak a piece.
Clown . . . . . Mr. O'Myhoney.

No Free List. 25 cents.
ROBERTS, STEPHENS & MITCHELL, Managers and Proprietors of the "Irish Republic."

LATEST FROM EUROPE.

THE "AFRICA" GONE TO HALIFAX.

Her dates are two days later than those already received, but, notwithstanding, some of them were spoiled by the salt water. Not keeping them carefully packed is supposed to have been the cause. Her figs and oranges were in good condition.
The Times says that the report that the Sultan of the Muskans had been murdered, is false, the report referred to the Sultan of Muscat.
A Dublin writer says that Stephens, the Head Centre, evades his pursuers as a hare does, by Dublin on them. The man, however, who perpetrated the pun has been punished.

In the House of Commons, Mr. Gregory moved an address to the Queen, but as it was quite heavy he could just barely move it, and that was all.
In the divorce case of Mr. Cavendish, whose wife eloped with Lord Cecil Gordon, he has been awarded by the Courts, as a compensation for the loss of a faithless wife, £10,000. His wife having "cut" him thus, she left a "line-cut Cavendish to back her."

The applications for the new Chilian loan were nearly eight times the required amount. Chill will not be left out in the cold.
The Prince Imperial of France has the measles. The whole family are reckoned a measly set.
The Prussian Diet has concluded to dress all her soldiers in the "Prussian blue." Since the prevalence of the "rinderpest," the Diet of the Prussians has been very strict.
Fenianism has at last got into the royal family of England. The Prince of Wales' youngster fell down stairs and brought on a collision with his head centre.
The cholera is still running to Crowded Houses on the continent.

"What 25 Cents Will Do."
An Intelligent Contraband has been parading our streets for some time past, with a Banner bearing this motto or conundrum; and he seems yet not satisfied with the assertion, as he continues in his daily walks, to still press the point. To relieve his mind, and that of any other anxious person, we will, as public enlighteners of the age, state what it will do.
It will buy a package of 4 seven-cent Car tickets, with the understanding that the car will not stay on the track with "cuddled pussens" in it.
It will buy a Pocket book at Hoyt's variety store, with the privilege of having a $8-00 table Castor thrown in.
It will buy twenty-five dollars worth of the Fenian Bonds, and "draw a badger" as a prize besides.
It will insure you from the Rinderpest, or if you do have it while Travelling, you can recover from the Accident Insurance Company.
It will pay for a sight at the Architect's drawing for the new Court House now begun in Independence Square.
It will pay to keep it in your pocket.

House-Hunting.
Lady. "My terms are these:—We will retain for our own use the two parlors and the second-story front bed-room, and a room in the back building for a store-room. The five other rooms will be $150 a month, in advance. Whoever rents them is to board, and wash for our family (only a small child besides ourselves), for which we will allow $3-00 per week to pay for servant. If these terms suit you, we will be glad to examine your references."
House-Hunting Martyr.—"I'll speak to my wife about it."

Insurance Failures.
Persons who seek rather to insure at low rates than in thoroughly well-established and solvent companies run immense risks. Three large Eastern companies have failed lately for extraordinary amounts, and losses by fire seem to be more frequent and of greater magnitude than ever. A little table on this subject may be instructive. During 1865 the losses by fire in the United States exceeded $45,000,000, and in the last eleven years the following losses are reported:—

Table with 2 columns: Year, Losses.
1855.....$18,040,000
1856.....21,169,000
1857.....15,712,000
1858.....11,651,000
1859.....19,658,000
1860.....15,597,000
Total losses.....$214,588,000

Official News from El Paso.
Official news has been received by Senator Romero, from El Paso, the seat of the Mexican Government, up to the 16th ult. President Juarez and his Government remained in undisputed possession of Northern Chihuahua. A French deserter, who arrived at El Paso, reported that all the French forces abandoned the city of Chihuahua on the 6th.

ANTILLY SCHOOL.—It is said that the permanent Artillery School, organized in General Orders No. 6, which is to convene April 2, will have under consideration a plan for establishing a United States school for artillery at Fortress Monroe, Virginia.
LEMON JUICE IN DIPHTHERIA.—Doctor Revillout, in a paper presented last summer to the French Academy of Medicine, asserts that lemon juice is one of the most efficacious medicines which can be applied in diphtheria, and he asserts that when he was a dresser in the hospital his own life was saved by this timely application. He got three dozen lemons, and gargled his throat with the juice, swallowing a little at the same time, in order to get on the more deep-seated parts. Dr. Revillout has noted eleven cases of complete success obtained by this method of treatment.

MISCELLANEOUS JOTTINGS.

—Illinois has several counties where they pay bounties for wolf scalps.
—It is said that our Government has paid $27,500, during the past month, out of the secret service fund for the arrest of conspirators.
—The Louisville Journal contains a call for a grand mass meeting of the friends of President Johnson's restoration policy, to be held in that city on the 7th of May.
—The Gainsville Era thinks that Florida will soon have a superabundant population, as emigrants are pouring in from all parts of the world. It bids them welcome and assures them of a kind reception—particularly if they bring money.
—The San Antonio (Texas) Herald is charmed with the serene peace that prevails in that city:—"With the exception of fifteen or twenty fights and the exchange of a few friendly shots, without any unfortunate results, nothing has happened of moment for two days."

—Anti-monopoly meetings are constantly held through the West. At Grand, Cook county (Ill.), the farmers have formed a league for the purpose of working in concert towards the reduction of the present evil. They insist that the only remedy for overcharges in freight is a ship canal around Niagara Falls.
—Cleveland has no water to drink. The petroleum refiners throw their waste into the river, and the result is that the water supply is fouled past remedy. Even the ice which has been cut for use next summer is impregnated with the oil. It is proposed to extend pipes far into the lake, in imitation of Chicago.

—A Raleigh letter-writer thus photographs Governor Holden:—"A man apparently of fifty years; above the medium stature; rather heavy set; dark complexion; black hair (slightly bald in front), sprinkled with grey; blue eyes; heavy eyebrows; prominent and strongly marked features, expressive of determination even to stubbornness."

—The Illinois cotton commands a premium of five cents per pound in New York, and this fact is producing a decided effect in the culture of the staple in that State. Jefferson county produced half a million pounds of the crop last year, which, at Western prices (forty-five cents per pound), is worth $225,000, while some of the more southern counties have raised four times that amount.

—The Louisiana State penitentiary at Baton Rouge is undergoing repairs. It is proposed to teach the criminals the shoe trade. Says the Advertiser:—"The labor of one hundred convicts, steadily applied, will result in the manufacture of forty-eight thousand pairs of shoes per annum. This alone will keep within the State a very large sum that is now paid direct to Massachusetts."

—The Nation has investigated the matter, and states that 681 books were published in the United States during the last six months of 1865. Of this number 165 are publications of foreign books, and three-fourths of the remainder are pamphlets, dime novels, or law reports, which are excluded from libraries proper. In England the number published in the same time is about 2500.

—The Mobile Tribune regrets "that the last cold spell" very seriously touched the orange trees. "These trees," it adds, "are not so delicate as they seem. They become accustomed to cold weather if it be continued long, but they are very susceptible to atmospheric caprices. Given a cold shock, and then suddenly a few days of general warmth, succeeded by severe weather, and they sink under it."

—A dinner was given on Monday evening to Mr. Parke Godwin, of the New York Evening Post, by a few of his friends, at the Malvern Lodge, on the occasion of his approaching departure with his family for Europe. The affair went off pleasantly. Speeches were made—some very short—by Mr. Blodgett, who presided; by Mr. Godwin, H. W. Beecher, G. W. Curtis, W. B. Ogden, C. P. Kirkland, S. J. Tilden, and others.

—A correspondent of the Boston Commercial writes from Ogunquit, Me.:—"In the houses of our two nearest neighbors are four generations. Children born last fall are surrounded by their parents, grandparents, and great-grandparents, and all live under one roof. The two houses are not more than a stone's throw apart. One of the children has seven grandparents living; the other, poor fellow, has only four."

—The Richmond Enquirer says Asa Hartz delivered a lecture on "Babies," in Raleigh, recently, for the benefit of the poor. The people of Newbern went to hear it. He responded: "Whereas, We have been invited by sundry citizens of Newbern to deliver our lecture on 'Babies,' and whereas, the said lecture ought to be delivered for the benefit of the poor; therefore, Resolved, That we are the poor."

—Previous to the war the militia of Virginia numbered 143,255 officers and men, including 92 troops of cavalry, 26 batteries of artillery, 113 companies of riflemen, and 111 companies of light infantry; but by the so-called "dissolution and treason" of the section known now as West Virginia, the number of militiamen of all classes was reduced to about 135,000. After the passage of the ordinance of secession, the available State force was as follows:—131 troops of cavalry, 108 batteries of artillery, 494 companies of light infantry, and 277 companies of riflemen. Notwithstanding this great preparation, the actual number of regiments from Virginia in the Confederate service on the 1st of November, 1861, was only 68, including all arms, or a little more than 70,000 men.

—Since the war the attention of capitalists has been directed to the oil regions of the South. Gadsden, in Alabama, is one of the most promising sections. It is situated at the western terminus of the Lookout mountain, on the northwestern bank of the Coosa river, and is fifty-four miles west of Rome, Ga., and twenty-seven miles north of Blue mountain, the present terminus of the Alabama and Tennessee Rivers Railroad. Derricks are going up everywhere, and an immense amount of machinery has already been brought in to play. There are no statistics, as yet, of the yield. A writer in the Columbus Enquirer says that the country also abounds in silver, copper ore, and coal, while "there is iron ore within ten miles of Gadsden in sufficient quantities to supply the world for ages."

CHESTNUT GROVE WHISKY.

No. 225 North THIRD Street.
If anything was wanted to prove the absolute purity of this Whisky, the following certificates should do it. There is no alcoholic stimulant known commanding such recommendation from such high sources:—
PHILADELPHIA, September 5, 1858.
We have carefully tested the sample of CHESTNUT GROVE WHISKY you send us, and find that it contains none of the poisonous substances known as FUSIL OIL, which is the characteristic and injurious ingredient of the whiskies in general use.
BOOTH, GARRETT & CAMAC,
Analytical Chemists.

NEW YORK, September 5, 1858.
I have analyzed a sample of CHESTNUT GROVE WHISKY received from Mr. Charles Wharton, Jr., of Philadelphia, and having carefully tested it, I am pleased to state that it contains none of the poisonous or deleterious substances. It is an unusually pure and the favored quality of whisky.
JAMES E. CHILTON, M. D.,
Analytical Chemist.

BOSTON, March 7, 1859.
I have made a chemical analysis of commercial samples of CHESTNUT GROVE WHISKY, which proves to be free from the heavy Fusil Oil, and perfectly pure and unadulterated. The fine flavor of this Whisky is derived from the grain used in manufacturing it. It is an unusually pure and the favored quality of whisky.
